

1. Gradient Descent

Always the right choice for its role in the optimization process.

Gradient Descent

function as a variable to find the minimum.

It starts at a high point and moves towards the minimum.

The path starts at a high point and moves towards the minimum.